Assault

A city man turned himself in to Manchester Police in connection with an assault at an Elm St restaurant.

On April 30, 2023, Manchester Police received a report that an employee at Murphy's Taproom had gotten into an argument with a man in the restaurant. During the course of the argument, the employee was reportedly spat on and slapped.

Surveillance video was consistent with what the employee reported and also showed the suspect pick up a chair in an aggressive manner.

Police identified the suspect as 47-year-old Keith Murphy and on June 19, 2023, Murphy turned himself in to Manchester Police. Murphy is charged with 2 counts of Simple Assault and 1 count of Criminal Threatening.

Murphy was released on PR bail and will be arraigned on July 24, 2023.
